

Professional Technical Group 2011-2012

The Professional Technical Group consists of positions listed below. This is a non-represented group. Individual employment agreements are renewed yearly. These positions are exempt from overtime provisions.

Level I Salary - $55,918

These jobs require advanced technical knowledge in a specialized area. Employees in these jobs will train others as needed in the specialized technical area.

Title:

Purchasing Lead

Transportation Operations and Dispatch Lead

Capital Projects Coordinator

Level II Salary - $60,000

These jobs require advanced technical knowledge in a specialized area. Employees in these jobs may have some supervisory functions over other employees.

Title:

Student Information Systems Coordinator

Human Resources Classified/Certificated Support Specialist

Level III Salary - $72,693

These jobs require advanced technical knowledge in a specialized area and a college degree or certification in that specialized field. Employees in these jobs may have some supervisory functions over other employees.

Title:

Technical Support Coordinator

Payroll Supervisor

Human Resources Certificated Specialist

Public Information Officer

Level IV Salary - $81,197

These jobs require advanced technical knowledge in a broad area, and a college degree or certification within the field. Employees in these positions have supervisory and evaluation functions over other employees. These employees make some independent decisions concerning district-wide functions.

Title:

Accounting and Business Manager

Capital Projects Accounting Manager and Compliance Officer

Level V Salary - $94,000

These jobs require highly advanced technical knowledge in a broad area, and a college degree or certification within the field. Employees in these positions have supervisory functions over other employees. These employees make independent decisions concerning district-wide functions.

Title:

Network Manager

Salaries for these positions are based on consideration of “market demand” and District resources.