

2018 Summer Camps and Activities

Hello Families!

As the school year quickly progresses we wanted to be sure that all families have information about some resources for summer camps and activities. Camps and other activities can fill up very quickly and registration for many of these are open or may begin very soon. We will update this list as new information comes in, so be sure to check the monthly Family Advocate newsletter, Family Resource bulletin board near the main office or the school newsletter. If you have any questions about the resources listed, please call the Family Advocate office at school 206-393-4331.

The membership includes two adults and their children ages 3-18 years and the membership is for one year. Families can call to sign up at 206-443-2924 or you can sign up in person at your first visit. The Pacific Science Center is located at 200 Second Ave N, Seattle 98109. No proof of income is required.

Woodland park Zoo camps: Woodland Park Zoo provides limited scholarship opportunities for eligible families towards zoo classes or day camp programs. Scholarship applications are accepted on a rolling basis throughout the year. For 2018 summer camps, you are encouraged to apply as soon as possible as they will be reviewing applications approximately every 3 weeks until June 1 or when the majority of available funds have been awarded. After June 1, awards will be offered as new funds become available. Contact info: 206-548-2424

Woodland Park Zoo - 1-day pass The Woodland Park Zoo partners with many community and private agencies to provide free one-day passes to the zoo. Some of these agencies include Shoreline Head Start, Vision House, North Seattle Family Resource Center, City of Shoreline and many others. Check the website at zoo.org/communityaccessprogram, click on "individual" and click the "CAP partners" link, then look through the list of partnering agencies. You can contact those agencies directly to ask about the availability of the free day pass.

Mountlake Terrace Parks and Recreation: Many different classes are offered throughout the summer, there is also a community pool for swim lessons and water activities. With a variety of camps and programs to choose from, you are sure to find something your child will enjoy. For information call 425-776-9173 or online at <https://www.cityofmlt.com/1794/Summer-Camps> Scholarships may be available.

Echo Lake Library: The Echo Lake school library will be open during the summer for story times and check out. Students can check out books, take reading counts tests and listen to guest readers. More details will be available in June.

King County Library: The Shoreline branch of the King County Library is located at 345 NE 175th Street, Shoreline WA 98155. The library has many workshops, story times, and activities for kids and adults. You can sign up to receive a monthly newsletter and learn about upcoming events at the library. Also, you can sign your child up for their own library card - it's free and it will encourage your child to use the library and to check out and read more books. You will need proof of address and date of birth. Check out the library website for more information <https://kcls.org/browse/kids/>

Chess 4 life: Students from kindergarten through 6th grade are welcome to join the summer chess camps.
