Conference Week

Please mark on your calendars that every day of conference week: November 4th - 8th students will be dismissed at 11:45.

Here's how to make the most of your parent-teacher conference

Preparation is the key to a successful parent-teacher conference. Here's how to get the most benefit from your meeting:

Before the conference:

- Make a list of things you'd like to tell the teacher, such as your child's favorite subjects and activities, difficulties in school, medical needs and any sensitive issues.
- Make a list of things to ask the teacher about, such as your child's work habits, attitude, behavior, strengths and weaknesses.
- Let your child know you are having a conference. Ask if there's anything you and the teacher should discuss.

During the conference:

- Be on time. Teachers have many conferences, and a five-minute delay can throw off the schedule.
- Listen carefully and take notes about your child's progress.
- Be positive. Remember: you and your child's teacher both want what's best for your child.
- Make a plan with the teacher to address any concerns and schedule a time to follow up.

After the conference:

- Let your child know how the conference went.
- Start with positive comments. Then, talk about any suggestions the teacher made - and how you plan to help your child carry these out.

Hello Brookside Blue Jay Families,

My name is Susie Moore, and I am the Family Advocate at Brookside. Did you know that Brookside has a Race and Equity team? In fact, all of the schools in our district have a Race and Equity team. These teams were developed a few years ago because the district prioritized examining the inequities that exist within our systems and communities and the impact that was having on our students.

This year, I am the Lead for Brookside's Race and Equity committee. Other members include:

Amy Lansing, LAP teacher	Cally Birgfeld, 1 st grade teacher
Jeb Thomas, 2 nd grade teacher	Erin Collins, 4 th grade teacher
Ranice Innocent, former R&E Lead, 1 st grade teacher	Rachelle Friskey, School Counselor
Janet Paden, 6 th grade teacher	Nicole Griffin, Instructional Coach
	Jennifer Choate, School Psychologist Intern

This committee believes that working on dismantling the racially biased educational system is imperative for the success of our students. The status quo regarding racial disparities in student academic and social/emotional success in schools needs a structural change. We will support and engage staff in this work through conversations and professional development on culturally responsive teaching and issues of race and equity. Our goal is to normalize these conversations, develop a more common language, and identify strategies that staff can use to better educate students and support families.

We are committed to ensuring our instructional practices serve the needs of all students and families while creating a welcoming, safe and inclusive school environment. We'd like to invite you to be an ally with us in this work. If you'd like to join Brookside's Race and Equity team as a parent/guardian representative, please let me know. We meet monthly on Wednesday mornings. You are also welcome to contact me with questions or comments.

Sincerely,
Susie Moore
